

Jack Haywood

BS | MBA

Dallas, TX, United States | London, United Kingdom

Email: jhaywood@udallas.edu | Phone: (317) 772-5026 | LinkedIn

Education

Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana, United States

Graduation Date: December 2022

Lacy School of Business

Major: Marketing

Minor: Spanish

University of Dallas, Dallas, Texas

Graduation Date: May 2025

Satish and Yasmin Gupta College of Business

Master of Business Administration

Concentration: Finance

Current GPA: 3.90

Work Experience

Copa America 2024 Business Partner

April 2024 – July 2024

- Interned as a business partner for one of the largest global sporting events the US has ever hosted.
- Worked in several capacities including finance, sponsorships and operations.
- Worked with several teams based in Dallas, including the United States, Canada and Peru.
- Required a variety of business skills, Microsoft Office proficiency and a native level of Spanish.

Business Intern with Butler Athletics

February 2021 – May 2022

- Worked in several departments including finance, accounting, marketing and operations.
- Gained valuable experience in every department within an NCAA Division I athletic program.
- Completed several projects that Butler Athletics used to generate revenue through merchandise, concession, and ticket sales.
- Produced several types of financial reports that were submitted to the NCAA.
- Required Microsoft Excel proficiency and ability to meet strict deadlines.

Junior Associate Captain Candy (Spain)June 2022 – December 2022

- Worked for a confectionary company, overseeing all departments to help the company grow their brand in European markets.
- Worked alongside the CEO on financial, marketing and operating strategies to aid growth.
- Played a large role in the upcoming expansion into the US market which provided a unique opportunity to gain hands on international business experience.
- Gained valuable cultural and language skills, communicating in my second language at a native level.

InvolvementHigh School House Captain*September 2015 - September 2016

- Elected by pupils and staff to represent the school as House Captain.
- Required many qualities such as: leadership, organizational skills and public speaking.
- Organized many fundraisers for the school, that showed business acumen at a young age.

Completed a scholarship with Derby County Football ClubJuly 2016 - May 2018

- Signed a semi-professional contract aged 16.
- Gained valuable and unique life experiences, travelling across Europe to play at the highest level available to my age category.
- Played against the best teams in the world, including Manchester United, Liverpool and Real Madrid.
- Earned an optional diploma during this time to pursue an academic career.

Butler University Men's Soccer TeamAugust 2018 - December 2022

- 5-year starter at an NCAA division one program, earned Big East Honor Awards in each of these 5 years as a player and national college player of the week.
- Captained of the team during senior year displaying natural leadership and organizational skills.
- Invited to MLS preseason camps post-graduation.

Assistant Coach University of Dallas Men's SoccerAugust 2023 - Present

- Currently working as a graduate assistant coach, implementing my knowledge and skillset at the college level.
 - Role includes developing tactical strategies, personal and player development, strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills.
 - Requires strong time management skills, the ability to meet tight deadlines, alongside obtaining a master's degree.
-

Knowledge and Skills

Technology

- Proficient across all Microsoft Office platforms.
- Experience with Python, SPSS Analytics, Tableau and Alteryx.
- Experience with Wix website design.

Proficient in Spanish

- Earned high school and college credit, completing a minor at undergraduate level.
- Completed two internships that required proficient to native levels of reading, writing and speaking.

Financial Markets

- Strong understanding of current financial market, its condition and current events.
- Able to carefully, thoughtfully and strategically apply the knowledge acquired in both undergraduate and graduate classes to real-world experiences.